Computer Support Technician
(A+ Certification Training)
Certificate Program

The Computer Support Technician Certificate is a one-year program which prepares students for a career in the computer industry. This program provides a comprehensive preparation for the A+ EXAM, an internationally recognized credential for computer maintenance technicians. This program includes lecture and "hands-on" training so the student fully understands all concepts.

First Semester		Second Semester
Subject	Semester Hours	Subject	Semester Hours
CPMT 1303	3	CPMT 2350	3
CPMT 1311	3	CPMT 1345	3
ITNW 1325	3	ITSC 2339	3
	9		9

Capstone experience: Graduation with this certificate requires the successful completion of COMPTIA's A+ exam, or a comprehensive exit exam administered by the Computer Maintenance Technology faculty.